

Days of Creation

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters. Gen 1:1-2 ESV

1

God separated the light from the darkness and called the light Day and the darkness Night.

2

He created an expanse between the waters above and the waters below and called the expanse Heaven.

3

God gathered the waters under the heaven to let dry land appear. He called the dry land Earth and the water Seas. He also created vegetation, plants, and fruit trees with all their seed.

4

God created the sun, moon, and stars to give light to the earth and for signs, seasons, days and years.

5

He created all the creatures of the sea and the birds of the air.

6

He created livestock, creeping things, and all the beasts of the earth. Then He created man in His own image and gave him dominion over the earth.

7

Then the heavens and earth were finished and He rested from His work.
